Boy Drowns in Nixon Sure of U.S. Rescue Attempt Peace in Vietnam

CONRAN — Gary Martin, 16, drowned at 4:30 p.m. Sunday while aiding two women whose boat had been swamped at the Point Pleasant schute on the Mississippi River.

His body was recovered at 7 p.m. in water eight feet deep by Wayne Prince, Marston, and Henry Brands, route one, Marston.

Five boats including a Coast Guard patrol boat from Caruthersville, New Madrid county sheriff's department and other persons were used in dragging operations.

Coroner Gene Clayton, who investigated, reported the drowning was accidental. Clayton said a boat occupied by five persons, two men, two women, and a boy, whose identities are not available, was swamped by waves causing it to overturn. The two men swam to shore, the boy was on the overturned boat, and the women were in the water.

Martin and a companion, Larry Swilley, Conran, went to help the women and in attempting to get them into the boat, the Martin boat overturned.

Martin is reported to have said:

"I can't swim a stroke."

Prince, who was on the bank, heard shouts for help and started to the scene when he saw the Martin youth go under water. Prince told the coroner he dived 25 or 30 times but couldn't find the boy.

Prince said that Martin and Swilley had given their life preservers to the women and was able to get the women and Swilley into his boat.

Martin, son of Gary and Margaret Ray Martin, was born Jan. 19, 1954 at Hayti. He was to begin his junior year at Portageville high school today. He was a member of the high school football squad, an honor student, and was president of the sophomore class. He was a member of the high school band and the varsity club.

Besides his parents, he is survived by two sisters, Karen and Karla; one brother, Gregory; and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ray, all of Conran.

Services will be at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday at the Portageville high school gymnasium with the Rev. Edward Black of Conran officiating.

Burial will be in Mounds Park Saturday.

Asked whether he thought DeLise Funeral Home of chances for peace were better in the Middle East or Southeast Asia, Nixon declined to speculate.

Before the cease-fire, Nixon remarked, the Middle East situation "had no hope; since the cease-fire, it has some hope."

He referred, in a taped television interview for today's CBS Morning News, to the program of withdrawing U.S. troops and replacing them with South Vietnamese.

The President also expressed the view that there is "some hope" for the Middle East situation now that a cease-fire has been called. He played down suggestions at this time for a U.S.-Soviet peace-keeping force in the area.

Nixon said he would predict nothing and expect nothing as Hanoi's chief negotiator Xuan Thuy returns to the Paris peace talks Thursday.

There are no new U.S. initiatives, Nixon said, "but we are in a very flexible negotiating position" and "now we shall see the Middle East peace."

"I would not comment on it at this time," the President said, adding:

"I do not believe that suggestions of that type, are intentionally as they are, are going to be particularly helpful at a time when the Jarring is going forward."

He referred to the Israeli-Arab talks being conducted at the United Nations by Ambassador Gunnar Jarring.

Nixon has scheduled a general review of the Middle East situation at the Western White House Tuesday with State and Defense departments, Central Intelligence and military chiefs represented.

Prisoners Shot

MARBLE HILL — Two prisoners were shot in the leg while trying to escape from the Bollinger county jail, Sunday between 3:30 a.m. and 4 a.m.

Sheriff Frank Matthews and Deputy Sheriff Troy Anderson heard noises back of the jail and went to investigate. They found two inmates, Ivan Lee Palmer, Cape Girardeau, and William Mills Jr., 42, Cape Girardeau, coming through a window.

The two officers called for them to stop and then pelted both in the leg with shotgun blast, the state patrol said.

Both of the prisoners were held in the Bollinger county jail after being taken from the Cape Girardeau city jail because of lack of space.

DEBBIE WHEELER, September calendar girl, has a warm smile for autumn. She was first runner-up in the 1970 Miss Sikeston contest. She is enrolled as a freshman at Southeast Missouri State College in Cape Girardeau. Miss Wheeler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wheeler of 807 Poplar.

Debbie Wheeler, first runner-up to 1970 Miss Sikeston last September, is calendar girl this September. Miss Wheeler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Wheeler of 807 Poplar.

Two boys ages 14 and 15 were caught stealing two knives, a pair of sandals and two boxes of rubber bands at Wal-Mart.

Police and store managers were reluctant to discuss methods employed by shoplifters.

The incidents reported to authorities during August varied:

Two 11-year-old boys and a 15-year-old boy were caught stealing model trucks from Woolworths and a stove pipe at Wal-Mart.

A 15-year-old boy was caught stealing two watches at Gruber's.

A 15-year-old girl was caught stealing the following from Woolworths, Sterlings and A and P Supermarket: Two false eyelashes, a compact, a sponge, a bottle of eye makeup, an eyelash curler, a knit suit, two dresses, cookies, peanuts and some chocolate candy.

A woman was caught stealing a purse from Woolworths.

Police and store managers were reluctant to discuss methods employed by shoplifters.

The ways that were discussed varied from wearing garments out of a store to putting items in shopping bags.

Apparently shoplifting has become such a common practice in Southeast Missouri that the Bootheel Law Council headed by Sikeston City Manager W. Raymert Miller is planning to hold a seminar this fall for merchants on the problems. The seminar would be conducted by the University of Missouri.

One merchant said his store has about four incidents weekly.

Miss Wheeler plans to begin classes at Southeast Missouri State College in Cape Girardeau 10 days before her 18th birthday anniversary, Sept. 18. She spent the summer in Arden, suburban St. Louis, baby sitting and feels she is ready for school in the smaller city.

"What I saw, I thought was pretty funny," she said concerning her observations of a festival in Forest Park in St. Louis, in August.

"They (hippies) were supposedly taking a bath," she said. "They were taking their clothes off to take a bath and I left. What made me mad, stores gave them food and clothing. They (hippies) said they would keep the park clean, and when they left, they left their trash behind. I saw no purpose whatsoever to the activity."

"My sister is a sophomore at Cape and sort of broke me in,

"If you go into a sorority or fraternity thinking it will be a big involvement in Vietnam, Miss Wheeler said: "That is all that is to help other people, and I've got to say about it, I see the U. S. as a mother nation. We will tend to draw members into more civilized ways and habits. I will be living with my aunt in Cape Girardeau this fall.

"About demonstrations on campus, if it is for student government, it is fine," she said. "But not for more power. That is going too far."

Highway Walk Fatal

By DONNA KOCH

CHARLESTON — Mississippi county sheriff's authorities reported today that William Dixon, 22, of the Pinhook community, was arrested at midnight Saturday in Charleston and is being held for Kansas City, Kan., authorities on a manslaughter charge.

Dixon, who was arrested by Deputy Sheriff Willie Jarrett and Ben Stampy of the police department, is accused of killing Floyd Davis of Kansas City May 16.

The fatality was Faris Ricketts, 60, Caruthersville, who was walking west in the westbound lane, and was struck by a 1966 Pontiac, driven by Danny Atchison, 23, Bernie.

Atchison was traveling west, the state patrol said, when he met another car traveling east, and did not see the pedestrian on the highway.

The body of Ricketts was taken to German Funeral Home in Steeles.

CRUCIAL CASE ON TWO-THIRDS RULE

The rule by a United States District Court in Kansas City upholding Missouri's two-thirds requirement in school elections is not the final decision in this important issue.

The binding ruling on the question will be made by the United States Supreme Court.

Attorney Paul W. Preisler of St. Louis, who has suits challenging the two-thirds rule pending here, points out that the Kansas City decision is only one of four state verdicts that have been made on this issue.

The Idaho Supreme Court also has upheld the two-thirds majority requirement. But state supreme courts in West Virginia and California have struck down the two-thirds rule.

The West Virginia case is scheduled to be heard by the United States Supreme Court early in 1971. This could be the case that determines how all the others will go, rather than the Kansas City decision.

In our opinion there is no justification for the two-thirds majority requirement. It gives "no" voters twice as much power as "yes" voters.

The usual modus operandi is to pick up a victim at a jail, or outside if he is still free, and spirit him at night into the countryside. Hands tied or handcuffed behind his back, he is beaten and often tortured. He is then either strangled or shot.

Bodies have been found with as many as 100 bullets in them."

The Death Squad has not yet begun liquidating political "criminals," but it is only a short step to that. Surely, a politician whose views one does not agree with is as dangerous or more so than some petty thief and as worthy of summary execution.

From there it is only another short step for the Death Squad itself to acquire political power, a la the Nazi Brownshirts, under the leadership of some charismatic national "savior."

None of this has anything to do with the United States, of course.

RULE OF LAW vs. REIGN OF TERROR

Civil libertarians are alarmed at a number of provisions in drug and crime control bills currently under consideration in Congress.

They point in particular to the dubious wisdom or home equipment, major constitutionality of a "no appliances and housewares" knock' statute, already approved by the Senate. This measure would permit federal agents to enter a home without warning or identification if they believed that narcotics were about to be destroyed inside."

Another is the setting up of a new class of criminal — the "dangerous special offender." A law-breaker, even if it were his first arrest or conviction, could be sentenced, at the discretion of the court.

The most shocking report comes from a former Vietnam

Christian Service volunteer who worked in side the provincial agent at Tam Ky in Quang Tin

Province for more than two years.

The volunteer, Douglas

Hostetter, 26, taught a writing class inside the prison, located about 40 miles south of Da

Nang. He was there from November, 1966 to June, 1969.

Officials of the Mennonite

Central Committee and of Church World Services, who

sponsor Vietnam Christian

Services, described Hostetter as dedicated and truthful.

From the detailed journals which Hostetter kept of his experiences in South Vietnam, here is his description of life in the prison at Tam Ky:

"There would be from 50 to 100 prisoners kept in large rooms with concrete platforms to sleep on, but since there were far too many people to lie down, most of the prisoners had to sit or stand throughout the night.

"All the torturing was done in the interrogation center across the street. In the interrogation center there was the usual electrical shock, beatings, sticking with pins, burning with cigarettes and at times, water torture.

"Of the prisoners I talked with personally in the prison, none had ever had a trial and many had never even had a hearing, and none knew how long their sentence was.

60 CHILDREN

UNDER 10 HELD

"Another tragic aspect of the prison situation is the children.

It seems that being a VC is an hereditary problem in Vietnam.

When I did a survey -- on May 17, 1969, I discovered that there were 60 VC under the age of 10 being held by the prison at that time.

According to Dr. Nelson,

"The prison at Quang Ngai was built -- to house approximately 500 prisoners. During the time I worked there, the prison population ranged from 800 to 1,300.

"In addition to treating the common ailments and the infectious diseases and malnutrition occasioned by these conditions, I also regularly examined and treated prisoners who had been tortured."

"God is probably lonelier than the devil. But, on the other hand, He is certainly less bored.

Should 'Irving' Cut Mother's Toenails at a Party? At Home?

Dear Ann Landers: Recently I ever told her what I thought, it we had a party at our home. My would be the end of our in-laws were invited, as they relationship. Can you suggest a always are when we entertain, way to teach the bride some Both are in excellent health. (I manners? — White Plains, N.Y. should feel good.)

My curiosity got the best didn't teach her manners, she is of me so I followed them. When not likely to appreciate any I opened the door to my sewing belated lessons from her mother room (which had been closed-in-law. but not locked) I was shocked to see my husband busily trimming unacknowledged gift, urge the with your request.

They greeted me in a friendly manner and invited me in. My mother-in-law said, with considerable pride, "Nobody cuts toenails like my Irving. I feel so much better now. It's a load off my feet."

For your information, Ann Landers, Irving is 46 years old. Am I wrong to be upset over this? It seems to me the middle of a party is hardly the time to cut toenails. And don't you agree that my mother-in-law should ask her husband and not MINE, to perform this personal service? — Wife of T.N.T. (Toe-Nail Trimmer)

Dear Dynamite: According to your mother-in-law nobody cuts toenails like my Irving, so there you have it. I agree she could have selected a better time but it's not worth fighting about. Your husband is too old to retrain -- and so is your mother-in-law. Forget it.

Dear Ann Landers: My father doesn't understand me. I am sure lots of letters to you start off this way, but I'm not stopping here. What I want to say is I don't care whether my dad understands me or not because I know he loves me.

We disagree about many things, and I'm sure he thinks I'm dumb and miserable -- I think he is spaced out and has no idea of what it's like to be a teen-ager today. But underneath it all, I feel his love and I know he is smarter than I am about certain things because he has lived through more. I know, too, he is on my side and everything he tells me is for my own good. He may not always be right, but he is my friend, and this is what counts. --A Son

Dear Son: What a great letter! I'm not printing the name of your city because I'm sure there are millions of dads out there who would like to think it was meant for them. Thank you for writing.

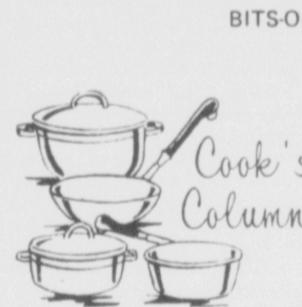

Dear Ann Landers: What can be done about a young in-law who is too lazy to acknowledge a wedding gift? She waits until she runs into people. Then she gushes all over them and blurts out a list of excuses for not writing a thank-you note. This is especially embarrassing when people outside the family call me to ask if their present was received. The usual phrase is -- "We haven't had an acknowledgement. Maybe the gift went astray."

I haven't said a word because I don't want to start anything. If

Malden Season: Unpredictable Cards Making Move In West

(First In a Series on SEMO high school football teams)

MALDEN — The 1970 football season for the MHS Green Waves is as "Predictable as a Woman", commented coach Jack Phillips while sending his squad of 24 through a practice session in preparation for the season opener at Kennett, Sept. 11.

"Our defense is set, but our offense could pose problems," related the Daily Standard's 1969 Coach of the Year. The Big Green have nine of 11 defensive starters back and eight of the top 11 on offense back, but gone are backs Don Clayton and Ronnie Hamlett, the one-two punch of the Wave team that placed second in the State AA playoffs last season, finishing with an 11-1 mark.

"We're short handed," quipped the three-year head coach of the Green Waves. "With such a small squad, we have some positions where we have no depth at all."

Phillips related his plans to run the straight T offense, with a little added options that he hopes will add to his team's offensive production, which was the top offensive unit in the division an conference last season.

One big reason for the Waves' offensive production was Don Clayton, who was named all-state at the end of the campaign and signed a grat-in-aid with Murray State University. Clayton picked up over 160 points of the Big Green's total in the drive to the division championship and a second place finish in the state 2A playoffs.

"Most feel that Clayton will be hard to replace," Phillips noted. "But, if Rogers performs in a game like he does in practice, he could be the replacement and possibly be the best back to have ever come from Malden."

"If nothing happens, I hope we have a good season," coach Phillips commented during a break in an early morning drill, one of two he has held each day since drills began Aug. 15.

But, if things go as the mighty 24 players see ... "We'll be No. 1 ..."

Next: Charleston.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—St. Louis yet rallied to win the sixth.

St. Louis Manager Red Schoendienst left town enthused about the Cardinals' chances in tonight to open an important four-game series with the New York Mets. Nelson Briles, 5-4, will oppose New York's Jerry Alston is still shaking his head over the Dodgers' anemic Koosman, 8-6, in the series opener.

The Cardinals climaxed a three-game sweep of the Dodgers on Sunday with a 2-1 victory over the Cardinals. Schoendienst had threatened to remove the Bill Carlton from his starting rotation until his seventh victory against St. Louis.

While the defeat left the Dodgers reeling, the Cardinals climbed squarely into a personal four-game losing streak in the Eastern Division.

"My goal was to get within six games of the lead by Sept. 1," disclosed Schoendienst, and it's up to us now."

"And we are just about there right now." The Cards are 3-2 second inning after Jose games back of Pittsburgh in the Cardinals' NL East.

Andy Kosco drilled a

Fire Rewards Rise to $5,000

CAPE GIRARDEAU — A $1,000 reward for information leading to arrest and conviction of those responsible for fires last week at the Leming Mill and Cape Sanitation Co. has now grown to $5,000.

The original reward was offered by the city.

Chief of Police Irvin E. Beard said the sum had now grown to $5,000, but he could not disclose the source of the additional money.

City Manager W. G. Lawley said today that any others wishing to contribute to the reward fund may do so. He asked that contributions be sent to him. Names of those giving information will be held in confidence, he said, and receipts will be given.

Two Dexter Residents Hurt

Two Dexter residents were injured Saturday at 7 p.m. in a one-car accident on route H, five miles southwest of Dexter in Stoddard county.

The patrol said that a 1964 Chevrolet driven by Stewart McClain, 23, was apparently traveling at high speed, when the driver lost control, ran off the road and overturned in a ditch.

The driver was scratched. Gerald Freed, 27, received cuts on his face.

Both were taken to Dexter Memorial hospital.

A 1970 Kawasaki motorcycle, driven by Oscar Joe Nichols, 35, Perryville, was struck by a 1969 Ford pickup truck, driven by Roy Lee Moll, 34, Perryville.

The accident occurred Saturday at 10:20 a.m. on route 61, at the south Perryville city limits, when the Moll truck made a left turn in front of the motorcycle, the patrol said.

Nichols injured his right leg, and was taken to St. Francis hospital, in Cape Girardeau.

Four from Marble Hill were injured Sunday at 1 p.m. on route DD, four miles south of Marquand in Bollinger County.

The patrol said a 1965 Plymouth, driven by Gary Lee Sizze, 22, Marquand, pulled into the path of a 1968 Chevelle, driven by Mary Breckhaas, 20, Marble Hill at 1 p.m. on route DD, four miles south of Marquand.

Injured were Sizze, driver of the Plymouth, cuts on his face. Two passengers in the Plymouth were injured, Kenneth Sizze, 21, Marble Hill, mouth and chest injuries; also Donna Kay Sizze, 17, Marble Hill, possible chest and neck injuries.

All were taken to Madison County Memorial hospital in Fredericksburg except the Breckhaas woman, who was taken to Southeast Missouri hospital, Hayti, and treated for possible internal injuries.

Plans for Route D, Pemiscot, Approved

The Missouri State Highway project would proceed followed by acquisition of right-of-way. The improvement of Route D will be placed under contract after right-of-way has been acquired and funds are available for construction.

Shaw indicated the project would eliminate several sharp curves and replace a narrow bridge over Half Moon Bayou making the highway a safer route for the highway department, indicated final design of the facility.

Bonne Terre Citizens Live on Cash at Hand

BONNE TERRE — Most when James B. Crismon resigned his post of president on Aug. 14, closing of the city's only bank "when he resigned almost has caused problems and everyone became aware that there was probably something wrong," Mr. Myers said.

But these are viewed as being only temporary as customers wait for the First State Bank of Bonne Terre to be purchased by another financial institution or dissolved and reestablished. Either way, customers and their money are protected by law.

During the past week the city has existed without a banking institution. When the bank closed all transactions were frozen. No checks can be written and no money can be withdrawn. This city of about 3,500 is living on available cash.

"My business has fallen off about 50 per cent since the bank closed," said Juan Perez, owner of a downtown discount center. "It's been a real tight squeeze, but we're getting by."

Mel Weems, owner of the Bonne Terre Western Auto store said: "You just can't run a business without a bank," and added that "if the people have any cash, they try to hang onto it."

Many of the residents have found it necessary to borrow money from other area financial institutions. City Manager Selby W. Myers said almost all area banks are willing to make money available until the banking crisis is past.

Greater problems would have probably arisen had the city been unaware of potential trouble at the bank. "It had been rumored that there was trouble of some sort at the bank," the city manager said. "And as time went by, the rumors grew."

Despite the forewarning, Mr. Myers described the actual closing of the bank as being a "psychological shock. After all, how many banks close?"

The rumors that had been in circulation for months peaked

They fought fire at decided to leave, 'Bonne Terre' considerable danger to citizens just decided to get new themselves, and really helped us industries and now there are control this blaze," he added.

He said the people of the city "aren't the type to dwell in the past," and pointed to an announcement made on the same day the bank closed that revealed plans for the construction of a $1 million building for the Lead Belt Vocational Technical School located in the city.

It was revealed Thursday that Crimson had civil suits for $40,000 and $50,000 filed against him by the Bank of Huntville in Randolph County to recover that amount plus interest on money he had borrowed from the Bank of Huntville.

The $50,000 petition was reportedly signed by James B. Crismon on June 29, 1970. A demand for payment was made rescheduled for next year in Aug. 21, the petition says, but place of 1972, this newspaper was not made.

The other petition, a promissory note dated Sept. 2, for the Highway Department's 1969 calls for the payment of a division office at Sikeston, said note balance said to be $40,000 signed by James B. and Mabel Crismon.

Water Supply at Danger Level In Dexter Fire

DEXTER — Dexter's water supply was at a dangerously low level for several hours Tuesday night, and O. D. "Skeet" Hill, water commissioner, said that "I was giving them (the fire-fighters) every drop I could give them."

But still the water pressure was not adequate, according to Al Banken, Fire Chief. Especially after fire crews from Malden and Bloomfield "hooked in" on the Dexter lines to put additional water on the raging fire.

"I was really worried for awhile," Hill said. "If a motor had gone out, or if we would have had another fire in town, I don't know what we would have done," he added.

"I thought the firemen did a great job but we simply couldn't give them any more water," the water chief said.

During the fire Chief Banken inquired of Hill about the water situation.

"I'm giving you every drop I can give you," Hill declared. And, he added, let's just hope that the motors hold out and the fire doesn't spread any further, anticipated no major problems.

Mayor Willis Conner, while in completing the plans for the having high praise for the improvement projects, although the water situation, "If it hadn't construction costs have been for the Malden truck being gradually whittled away the able to hook onto the eight-inch department's ability to finance line clear up in front of the post all projects by originally office, I don't know what we scheduled dates.

"I hope some people who fought our water plans so strongly will be convinced now that we need more water facilities," the Mayor added.

"Our firemen did a wonderful job with what they had to work with," he said. "And," he added, "we were mighty lucky that our motors held out."

"I really believe," he said, "if that fire had gone on another hour we would have been out of water. And if another fire had broken out in town we would have been in real trouble."

Banken was high in his praise of the local firemen, but said he wanted to express a special "thanks" to the firemen of Bloomfield, Bernie and Malden.

"They really helped out in an emergency," the Dexter chief said.

WHAT YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT YOUR PRESCRIPTION:

Why it isn't always good to the very last drop

Unlike an old friend, you cannot rely upon an old prescription to do a thorough job... especially the same one for which it was originally intended. Drugs lose their potency over a number of years and some increase in strength through evaporation. Not only might a drug prove ineffective but it may be dangerous as well. Adverse storage conditions could also affect the prescription. Chemical changes can occur within the liquid, capsule or tablet. Then, too, there is the constant danger of a child reaching for an old prescription. Thinking it's candy... or simply imitating you... he might swallow the contents. The results may be tragic. Never depend upon a prescription lasting forever. Let your doctor re-prescribe for your present condition... after all, he is the expert! And once you have regained your health, always destroy the remainder of your prescription.

For the highest pharmaceutical standards, low prices consistent with quality and the personal attention you can always depend upon, bring your prescriptions to

Sensing The News

If constructive conservatism is to have a greater impact on law-making at the national level, significant change will have to be made in the U.S. Senate in the November elections. In recent years, the Senate has become the principal bastion of liberalism and the focus of opposition to preparedness. Such senators as Kennedy (Mass.), Fulbright (Ark.), Gore (Tenn.), McGovern (S.D.), and Goodell (N.Y.) constitute a powerful coalition favoring disarmament, increased welfare spending, and a general restructuring of American society.

The chances of change in a conservative direction seem rather good at the moment. In Tennessee, incumbent Sen. Albert Gore barely won renomination in the Democratic primary. In the general election, he faces U.S. Rep. Bill Brock, a youthful, energetic conservative. Sen. Gore's defeat would be a major victory for conservatives inasmuch as he is an opponent of realistic foreign and military policies. He also supports domestic policies favored by the Kennedy wing of his party.

The Christian Science Monitor, commenting on the senator's situation, said: "The dangerously narrow victory of Sen. Albert Gore in the Tennessee primary carries a warning to Democrats everywhere but particularly in the Southern and border states.... Those who have privately polled sentiment in, say, Memphis' inner suburbs, find sentiment which is unhappy about high prices but unhappy still about Vietnam super-doves, student extremists, black militants and permissive outlooks."

In Delaware, where veteran Sen. John J. Williams is retiring, the current political assessment has U.S. Rep. William V. Roth (R) as the favorite over Democrat Jacob C. Zimmerman. Mr. Zimmerman has indicated he would join the anti-preparedness bloc if elected.

One of the real surprises of this election year may come in New York. For the first time in years, the liberal vote in the Empire State will be split between incumbent Republican Sen. Harry F. Byrd Jr., a conservative stalwart in Congress, seeking reelection as an independent. His Democratic opponent is former Congressman George C. Rawlings. R. L. Garland is his GOP opponent. Both men are associated with the liberal wings of their parties.

If Sen. Byrd can defeat them, support of President Nixon's economic policies. The other major race in that state is for the governorship. Gov. Ronald Reagan is opposed by Jesse Unruh, boss of the state's Democratic organization. The Murphy-Reagan races are very important for the cause of conservatism. Both men stand firm against union excesses, support law and order policies, and endorse a vigorous national effort against international communism. Gov. Reagan has led the country in firm handling of campus militants.

While the situation could change between now and November, the conservative movement at this point seems in good shape to hold and increase its strength.

A combined turnout of Sikeston Legionnaires and the Drum and Bugle Corps gave Harry Blanton, recently elected head of the Missouri State organization, a rousing welcome last Thursday evening.

Townspeople also turned out to welcome the returning Legionnaire, who had by his election to the State, brought honor to this city. Paul Slankard acted the part of drum major and whirled a mean baton while members of the Drum and Bugle Corps rolled out the thunder of drums and the blare of trumpets.

Glen Ault, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newman Ault of the Birds Point community, has signed a contract with the St. Louis Cardinals for 1931. Glen has just returned from St. Louis, where he was visiting Branch Rickey, Cardinal manager.

Mrs. Calvin Greer returned Friday after a delightful summer in California.

Mrs. C.N. Harrel and children, Geneva and C.W., who have been visiting the J.W.

Schroff family and relatives here for the past four weeks left

Tuesday for their home in Chickasha, Okla.
